New Health Plan Implementation — MOLINA

Effective July 1, 2019 American Therapy Administrators of Florida/Health Network One (ATA-FL/HN1) will be the mandatory specialty network for physical therapy, speech therapy and occupational therapy services provided in a free-standing Facility or office setting (i.e. POS 11), for Molina’s Medicaid enrolled members.

COVERAGE AREA

Region 8 & 11

CONTINUATION OF CARE (COC)

If you are currently treating a Molina Medicaid enrolled member as of July 1, 2019, you can continue to see the member under the authorization that was issued by Molina. As of August 31st, 2019 or when the authorization that Molina issued has expired, whichever comes first, you are required to obtain an authorization from ATA-FL/HN1 to continue providing services for treatment that began prior to July 1, 2019.

CLAIMS SUBMISSION

If you were issued an authorization by Molina, please submit your claims for dates of service after July 1, 2019 to ATA-FL/HN1. Please submit your paper claims to ATA- FL/ HN1 at P.O. Box 350590, Fort Lauderdale, FL 33335-0590; or submit your Electronic Claims (EDI) via Professional Payer ID 65062 or Institutional Payer ID 12k89. Along with your submittal of claims, providers may be required to submit written documentation such as prior existing orders, prior authorizations and treatment plan/plan of care, in order to receive payment on their claim.

If you have any further questions, please contact ATAFL Provider Relations at 1 (888) 550-8800 Option 2, or at: atafl@healthnetworkone.com
